12. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Met with Mr. Richard Barton, Employee Benefits Subcommittee, who told me that the meeting for next week for the full Committee, House Post Office and Civil Service, has been cancelled but will undoubtedly be scheduled for the following week. Although Chairman Hanley would like H. R. 11150, for the protection of rights of Federal employees, included on the agenda of the first meeting, there are at least five major items for coverage ahead of it. Mr. Barton told me that although no final determination has been made as yet concerning S. 1438, the Ervin bill, in all probability it will just lie dormant until final determination is reached on the floor of the House concerning the provisions of H. R. 11150. At that time all after the enacting clause of S. 1438 will be stricken and the provision of H. R. 11150 substituted therefore and returned to the Senate. With regard to this legislation, Mr. Barton noted that Senator Ervin (D., N. C.) mentioned on the floor of the Senate that so much hard work had gone into S. 1438 by Miss Marcia MacNaughton, on the staff of Senator Ervin's Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights, that this bill might be called the MacNaughton bill.

13. (Internal Use Only - RJK) Delivered to the offices of Senators Edward M. Kennedy (D., Mass.), Lloyd Bentsen (D., Tex.), and Edmund S. Muskie (D., Me.) FBIS items in which their names were mentioned.
